Participatory Development Solutions (ElMahrousa PDS) was founded in 2011 to promote and enhance sustainable development, sustainable stability, and prosperity of the target communities, striving for a better quality of life for all. ElMahrousa PDS Programs addresses wide range of development gaps in the following three thematic domains: (1) Civil Society Development (CSD): stabilization of at-risk communities, peace-building, good governance, human rights, and the role and effectiveness of civil society organizations in development (2) Socioeconomic Inclusion and Development (SID): entrepreneurship and innovation in business development through SMEs, job-creation through behavioral change, migration and development, and decent work agenda; and (3) Sustainable Development Outreach (SDO): renewable energy, agribusiness development, water management, and food security.

His direct supervisor; the international relations unit director monitored his progress and reported that Mr. Ahmed is very orderly, with the ability to learn quickly with impressing strong time management as he is very efficient and has completed tasks on time with professionalism. She stated that Mr. Ahmed showed deep interest in the renewable energy field which was reflected in his work. he was active in developing research papers that outline needs of communities we target in Egypt and respond to their pressing challenges to be used in strategizing the mission and objectives of our organization and in the designing of our developmental projects.

Based on my firsthand observation of his performance over the past few weeks, I believe that Mr. Ahmed Khalil is fully capable of pursuing in your university and performing excellently. He has a cheerful and positive personality that makes him a joy to work with. At the same time, he displays dedication and eagerness to learn, and he exceeded expectations in his role at the Mahrousa PDS; I expect that he will do the same in his university.
